

Non-Discrimination in Programs and Services

The city of Las Vegas is a recipient of federal funding for some of its programs and activities. The city of Las Vegas is committed to administering these programs and activities for the benefit of all citizens in compliance with the city's non-discrimination policies, which are consistent with the requirements of federal civil rights regulations.

Any citizen who wishes to register a complaint that the city of Las Vegas is not administering a federally funded activity or program in compliance with non-discrimination policies or law may file such a complaint with:

Judy Tuttle, Deputy Human Resources Director
City of Las Vegas
400 Stewart Avenue
Las Vegas, Nevada 89101
(702) 229-6663
Email: jtuttle@lasvegasnevada.gov

Additionally, citizens may submit a written complaint within 180 days of the alleged discrimination to:

Any citizen who elects to first file a complaint with the city's Department of Human Resources is advised that the above 180-day deadline for filing a written complaint with the Department of Interior, Bureau of Land Management or other appropriate federal agency still applies and does not change because the citizen elected to first file his/her charge with the city.
